- Planning, organizing, directing and supervising the work of the OGA staff.
- Mentoring OGA staff by conducting performance reviews, developing staff members' analytical and written skills, and assisting with professional development.
- Consulting with legislative staff, committees and other internal and external stakeholders.
- Representing the commission to internal and external stakeholders at private meetings and through testimony at public events.
- Respond verbally and in writing to inquiries from commissioners, commission staff, legislative staff and other key stakeholders.
- Tracking the progress of legislative proposals through the legislative process.
- Analyzing the most controversial, sensitive, high-profile legislation and developing positions and concept papers.
- Identifying critical policy, political and administrative issues as they develop.
- Training Commission staff on legislative procedures and analysis.

DESIRABLE EXPERIENCE/QUALIFICATIONS: The successful applicant will be a highly motivated individual with an interest in public policy, generally, and issues within the jurisdiction of the Energy Commission, specifically. Qualification should include:

- Demonstrated ability to plan, organize and direct staff in a time-sensitive, high pressure, workload-driven environment.
- First-hand experience with the legislative process, including bill tracking and bill analysis.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills, including the ability to communicate publicly and directly to decision makers.
- Ability to work independently.
- Superior communication skills, written and verbal.
- Proven ability to effectively edit complex written work.
- Strong computer skills.
- A willingness and desire to learn new skills and methods.
- A willingness to work evenings and weekends, as needed.
